"We request to have our child, _____, placed in a homestay by DVH. We acknowledge that our child is under the age of eighteen (legal adult status in the United States), and that we - not the host family, nor DVH – will be held responsible for our child's actions while he/she lives in the United States. We agree to hold harmless and release all liabilities of DVH, and the host family chosen to host our child, including all claims against DVH and the host family for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay or expense resulting from participation in the homestay program. We hereby acknowledge, accept, and agree to the above named terms and conditions."
